BULK SMS

Bulk SMS, or mass texting, is the act of sending a large number of text messages to a group of people. It's a marketing strategy that businesses can use to reach out to customers, such as to announce updates, changes, or promotions.

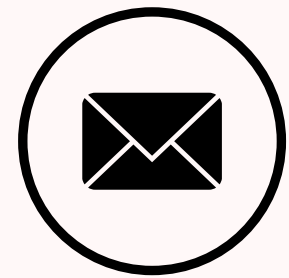

BULK WHATS APP

Whatsapp business users can send bulk messages to multiple phone numbers at once. A bulk message is similar to an email newsletter that sends one message to many users simultaneously.

you can also use whatsapp business api to schedule or send unlimited whatsapp messages.

BULK EMAIL

Bulk email is the act of sending one email campaign to a large group at once. Marketing messages, newsletters, updates, coupons, and invitations typically comprise bulk emails. Synonymous with mass email or email blasts, bulk emails focus on sending one central message to a large group of subscribers.
